Christmas Tree Festival Friday 6, Saturday 7 & Sunday 8 December

In just three months' time we will be holding our Christmas Tree Festival. There will be lots to do before then to ensure that all goes smoothly.

Our theme this year is "Anniversaries", so we hope you will choose a title from the list on the notice board – or one of your own – to decorate a tree. Why not decorate a tree as a family, or join with friends to do one? If you've never done one, ask us what is involved. If you really cannot decorate a tree then please think about donating towards the costs of holding the Festival (via wonderful.org on the church website). All proceeds, less expenses, will be donated to London's Air Ambulance.

All offers of help and enquiries please to Catherine Paul or Elizabeth Scharinger.

Charity Event 'thank you'

Back in April I mentioned that I was doing two challenge events to raise money for charity. These have now been completed and a huge thank you to everyone who supported me both in prayer and money raised. I did the parachute jump on 1 June and raised over £2000 for Regenerate RISE, a charity that assists the vulnerable elderly in Wandsworth. Then, on 4 August I completed the 100 mile Prudential cycle ride, raising almost £1000 for another charity, Compassion UK, which assists underprivileged children across the world. Both were experiences that I will never forget but also I remember the incredible generosity of my sponsors - thank you. You can see a few photos on the church website - thank you again. - Martin Lee
